Kids' sustainable Wearable Arts Catwalk Show 2017

Who can enter? Years 0-8

Wellington Cathedral of St Paul are inviting individuals, church children's groups, schools and beyond. To participate in their wearable arts fashion show. You can work as individuals or teams - it's up to you!

It's free to enter your costume. A koha will be asked from the audience which will go towards The Bpeople Honey Collective.

Please register for the show by 7 August so we can make sure we can fit everyone in. Email the following details to Richard Apperley richard@wellingtoncathedral.org.nz

- Creator / performer names and ages: (if you're in a team, creator name/s and performer names please). If you're not feeling confident about walking down the catwalk, being in a team might be a good option.
- Costume name / title
- Costume theme: we will match your costume to some music and images while you're walking down the catwalk
- If you're from a school or church group, please include this when you register.

There are only three rules:

- i) your creations must be made from recycled materials
- ii) your costume must be safe to move about in - no wheels, hoverboards etc. please!
- iii) you must have fun!

If you would like to put a notice in the grapevine, please contact either Catherine or Lisa W before Thursday afternoon.

We thank you for the revelations of scripture.
We pray that we may be “good earth” prepared to receive your gospel and let it flourish in our lives.
Help us to watch out for the shallowness that shrugs off your gospel seeds or lets them wither for lack of depth.
Help us to avoid the stranglehold of worry, selfcentredness and unworthy goals.
We pray that your teaching may be nurtured in our lives and in our church to make a real and visible difference for good in our communities.
God of grace and truth Help us to listen to your word to us.
God of the living word, give us the faith to receive your message, the wisdom to know what it means,
and the courage to put it into practice.
