What are we thankful for?

At this year's Diocesan Thanksgiving and Ordination, we've been invited to come ready to share what we're thankful for in our community. So start chatting amongst yourselves, and let's gather up a list of all that God has done in our midst over the last year! Send anything you're thankful for to officeislandbayanglican@gmail.com

Catering Request

As we are directly involved with ordination this year, the cathedral has requested we assist with catering. Please let Jeremy know if you are willing to help by providing sandwiches or finger food. They want us to bring eight platters so please help us out. officeislandbayanglican@gmail.com

Today's Verse

*So then you are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with the saints, and members of God's household.—
Ephesians 2:19 (HCSB)*

Open our eyes to see the beauty in creation; to see the goodness in others; to see the wisdom in scripture; to see where you are leading us. Enliven us, your church. Energise us.

Challenge us to stand not in the crowd lining the street, watching, but pilgrims on the road, taking our part as we follow Jesus and serve your kingdom.

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.
