Together we pray

Gracious God, you call each one of us to be a messenger of Good News. Clarify our thinking. Cleanse our motives, that our service in your kingdom is a pleasing offering to delight your heart.

We pray for all who, like the prophet Anna, have lost loved ones. Like her, may they find a deep faith and comfort in the fellowship of others who care and value them. We ask for your Holy spirit to rest with healing on those who are sick.....to rest with gentle wisdom on those who are seeking.....to rest with peace on all who are anxious....

Help us to hold fast the vision you revealed to Simeon, of Christ, Light of the world, salvation for all peoples. Grant us openness to recognise your timing. Help us to be among those who are lifted by the Gospel, who embrace Christ's love, who respond in joyful surrender.

For your love and goodness We give you thanks, O God Amen.
